

Bug Report: Redundant Category Naming

Summary: Redundant and unnatural category naming ("Dress Products").

Severity: Minor | Priority: Low

Step to Reproduce:

1. Navigate to the website home page .
2. Observe the main category heading above the product grid .

Expected Result : The category title should be professional and concise, following standard e-commerce patterns (e.g., "Dresses" or "Women's Dresses").

Actual Result : The title displayed is "Dress Products", which is redundant since "Dresses" are already known to be products.

Visual Evidence:

Suggested Fix : Rename the category header to "Dresses" to improve UX writing and visual hierarchy.
